

Kevin P. Kowar

Kevin was born in the shadow of Hartford, CT, “The Insurance Capital of the World” and graduated from the University of Notre Dame with a BBA in Finance. He began his insurance career with Hartford Insurance. He spent 12 years in Personal Lines Underwriting and lived in 8 states.

He then moved to Peerless Insurance and Indiana Insurance (now Liberty Mutual) for 12 years as VP of Personal Lines Underwriting and then as Regional VP of the Milwaukee and Chicago Regional Offices.

Kevin moved to Virginia in 2002 and joined Main Street America Group as Regional VP with responsibilities for VA, NC, SC, MD, DE and TN.

He later worked for Grange Mutual and Johnson & Johnson in Marketing before accepting the Association Executive position.

Kevin has earned the CIC and AU designations and is currently completing his CPCU. He is a licensed Property & Casualty agent in Virginia.

Kevin has been a member of PIA of VA/DC since 2003 and has served on the CEAC, Convention and Philanthropy Committees.

Kevin has 3 grown children, Kristofer, Kyle and Mallory; a 1-yr old grandson, Hayden; and will be marrying Meg Johnson of McArdle & Associates in August. He enjoys golf and has created and run a charity golf tournament for the past 11 years that benefits the intellectually disabled in Virginia including Special Olympics.

My vision for the PIA:

“I am very excited to serve you as the Association Executive. We have a great association but we can definitely do more and be better. I want to travel in Virginia and in DC to meet with current and prospective members. We need to create a buzz, an excitement about the PIA. We need to grow the association by bringing more value to our membership and to our company partners. I want to hear your ideas on how we can better serve you.”
